REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE—(OUT OF ORDER).

The special investigating committee on charges preferred against Hon. Lucas F. Smith, Judge of the Superior Court of Santa Cruz County, submitted the following report (out of order):

REPORT OF THE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE ON CHARGES OF MISDEMEANOR IN OFFICE
PREFERRED AGAINST THE HON. LUCAS F. SMITH, JUDGE OF THE SUPERIOR COURT OF SANTA CRUZ COUNTY, STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

ASSEMBLY CHAMBER, SACRAMENTO, March 7, 1905.

MR. SPEAKER: In the matter of the memorial and resolution presented to the Assembly on the 6th day of February, 1905, by Assemblyman Cleveland, wherein the Honorable Lucas F. Smith, Judge of the Superior Court of Santa Cruz County, California, is charged by certain persons with certain misdemeanors in office, and in accordance with a petition by said Lucas F. Smith, Judge of the Superior Court of Santa Cruz County, State of California, requesting an investigation of the charges preferred against him, your committee appointed by the Hon. Frank C. Prescott, Speaker of the Assembly, to investigate said charges of misdemeanors in office, beg leave to report as follows:

Your committee took up the investigation in the City of Santa Cruz on Thursday, February 16, 1905, at the hour of eight o'clock P. M., in the courtroom of the Superior Court of Santa Cruz County, all parties being present and represented by counsel, and the hearing was concluded at the hour of two o'clock A. M. February 19, 1905. The hearing was held open to the public. Forty-eight witnesses were sworn and examined orally. There was a great mass of record evidence, consisting of court records and other miscellaneous papers, which was introduced by the respective parties and examined by your committee. The hearing was conducted in accordance with the resolution of this Assembly, limiting the testimony offered to what the committee considered material and relevant to the twelve different specifications charged against said Judge Smith. After duly considering all the testimony, both written and oral, introduced by the memorialists in support of the different specifications charged against said Judge Lucas F. Smith, and the evidence, both written and oral, adduced by the defendant in his behalf, your committee finds and recommends as follows:

First—That Specification 1, as follows: "That Lucas Flattery Smith, as Judge of the Superior Court of the County of Santa Cruz, State of California, has been guilty of great partiality and favoritism to one Charles M. Cassin, a practicing attorney in said court. That said partiality and favoritism have been manifested to such a degree by said Smith, while presiding in cases in which said Cassin represented one of the litigants, and has become so well known that it has created a general impression that to succeed in that court before said Smith it is necessary to retain said Cassin"—is not sustained for want of sufficient evidence to show any probable cause or good reason for preferring articles of impeachment; but the evidence shows that Judge Smith has on several occasions committed indiscretions in this: That he has allowed certain attorneys practicing before his court to take certain liberties in the courtroom and in his chambers that should not be allowed, and has severely censured other attorneys for taking liberties of less consequence.

Second—That Specification 2, as follows: "That on or about December 6, 1902, said Smith told Peter P. Hartmann, a litigant, one of the parties to a case which was tried before said Smith, during September and October, 1902, but in which no decision had been rendered, that he should have employed Mr. Cassin, who was a friend of said judge, and that he, said Hartmann, was very unfortunate in having a different attorney to represent him; that he, the said Smith, would be more than human should he not let his personal prejudice guide his decision"—is not sustained by the evidence.

Third—That Specification 3, as follows: "That on or about the 19th day of April, 1904, during the trial of a case in which one Thomas Dakan was a defendant, which was being tried before said Smith as judge of said court, and a jury, said Smith suffered said Cassin, who represented the plaintiff, to commit an unprovoked assault and battery upon the person of said Thomas Dakan, without punishment or reprimand, and punished said Dakan for defending himself against the assault of said Cassin"—is sustained by the evidence, except that it was not shown that the assault committed by Mr. Cassin was entirely unprovoked; and the evidence further shows that Judge Smith committed an error in the case of Forgeous vs. Dakan et als. when he fined said Dakan for contempt and allowed the attorney for the plaintiff to go without being fined, when the evidence shows that they were equally at fault, taken in connection with the fact that an attorney is an officer of the court and more amenable than a layman for an infraction of its rules.

Fourth—That Specification 4, as follows: "That during the month of February, 1901, after the trial and conviction, in the Superior Court of the County of Santa Cruz, of one Nathan Smith, who was convicted of assault with a deadly weapon, and by the jury recommended to the mercy of the Court, and before the time set for passing sentence upon said Nathan Smith, said Lucas Flattery Smith, as said judge, requested one George B. Fletcher, the attorney who represented said Nathan Smith, during his trial, to secure from the citizens of the City of Watsonville, in the County of Santa Cruz, a petition setting forth the good character of said Nathan Smith, and petitioning said Lucas Flattery Smith, as judge of said court, to sentence said Nathan Smith to as light a sentence as the law would permit. Said petition, signed and verified by more than one hundred of the said citizens, was obtained and presented to said Lucas Flattery Smith, as said judge, and before the day appointed for the passing of sentence on said Nathan Smith, said Lucas Flattery Smith, as judge of said court, stated that he had received said petition, and would act thereon, and he would sentence said Nathan Smith to the lightest punishment which the law would permit, and thereupon sentenced said Nathan Smith to six months in the county jail"—is not sustained by the evidence.

Fifth—That Specification 5, as follows: "That said Lucas Flattery Smith, as judge of said superior court, arbitrarily, of his own motion, and without notice, struck from the files of the court the complaint in the case of Helen Younger, plaintiff, vs. Charles Moore et al., defendants. In said case said Smith was made a party defendant"—is fully sustained by the evidence, but the act complained of in this specification, as shown by the evidence, was an inexcusable error in law on the part of Judge Smith, but was not of itself such conduct on his part as to warrant his impeachment, and, as the evidence shows in this case where Judge Smith himself was named as one of the defendants, said Judge Smith committed a grievous error in, of his own motion and without notice to the plaintiff or other parties to the suit, and without testimony of any kind or nature and relying on his own personal knowledge, striking the complaint from the files of the court when there was, as the evidence plainly shows, nothing contained in the complaint which suggested any disrespect to the court or the judge thereof. That thereafter, in the same case, as the evidence shows, said judge committed a further grievous error in issuing an order to show cause upon John H. Leonard and the Youngers why they, and each of them, should not be punished for contempt of court because, as the judge stated on the stand, John H. Leonard was attorney for the plaintiff in said cause and the other gentlemen, the Youngers, were thought by him to have had some interest in filing the complaint. This order was issued, as the evidence shows, upon the affidavit of one W. C. Hoffmann, based merely upon information and belief.

Sixth—That Specification 6, as follows: "That said Lucas Flattery Smith, during the trial of Nicholas Sambuck vs. The Southern Pacific Company, as judge of said court, before whom said action was being tried, called into his chambers one John H. Leonard, attorney for said Sambuck, in said action, and advised said Leonard to permit the doctors in the employ of said Southern Pacific Company to examine said Sambuck, client of said Leonard, and to have said Sambuck bend and squeal when said doctors touched him"—is not sustained by the evidence.

Seventh—That Specification 7, as follows: "That said Smith has been guilty of great oppression and tyranny and mal-administration in the conduct of the affairs of his office"—is not sustained by the evidence, except that the evidence shows that Judge Smith committed an indiscretion in the case of the People vs. Otto Lavish when he publicly rebuked, before the jury, one of the attorneys for the defendant without just cause.

Eighth—That Specification 8, as follows: "That said Smith has openly expressed himself in open court in such manner as to show great disrespect for the Supreme Court of California, and calculated to bring said Supreme Court into disrepute"—no evidence was introduced in support of this specification.

Ninth—That Specification 9, as follows: "That on the 15th day of November, 1904, and after the conviction of one Louis Buelna of a statutory crime, in said court, before said Lucas Flattery Smith, and before the time appointed for the sentencing of said Louis Buelna, said Lucas Flattery Smith had a conversation with Frances Buelna, the mother of said Louis Buelna, in which said Lucas Flattery Smith, for the sole purpose of preventing said Louis Buelna from being in a position to appeal his case to the Supreme Court, informed said Frances Buelna that he, said Lucas Flattery Smith, pitied her very much, and that he would do all in his power in favor of her son Louis Buelna, and told said Frances Buelna to inform her boy, the said Louis Buelna, that if he, the said Louis Buelna, did not ask or permit his attorneys to ask for a new trial of his case, he, the said Lucas Flattery Smith, would sentence him, the said Louis Buelna, very lightly"—is not sustained by the evidence, except that the evidence shows that in his conduct in the case of the People vs. Louis Buelna, when he sentenced the defendant, an ignorant Mexican, to the penitentiary for ninety years, and who at the time was barely of age, in the absence of his attorney of record, who had requested and been granted a continuance of the case, thereby leaving the defendant without the right to move for a new trial or appeal. This was a grievous error and denied to the defendant the rights guaranteed by the Constitution; and further, that his action evidences an undue and hasty exercise of judicial power.

Tenth—That Specification 10, as follows: "That said Lucas Flattery Smith has been guilty of oppression and tyranny in his office, incorrectly and oppressively and without just cause imprisoning one P. E. Zabala and one J. J. Wyatt, upon feigned, fictitious, and false charges of contempt of his said court"—is not sustained by the evidence.

Eleventh—That Specification 11, as follows: "That said Lucas Flattery Smith, through ignorance, incompetence, favoritism, partiality, willful disregard of facts, and permitting attorneys and litigants privately, in chambers and out, to freely discuss causes before decision thereon, has wrongfully and incorrectly decided a great percentage of the cases tried before him, as is evidenced by the fact that about fifty per cent of the civil cases appealed to the Supreme Court from his judgment, and about seventy-five per cent of the criminal cases appealed to the Supreme Court from the decisions of said Lucas Flattery Smith, have been reversed by the Supreme Court, at great expense to litigants and to the people of the State of California"—is not sustained by the evidence, except that there is some evidence to show that Judge Smith has during the progress of a trial called attorneys into his chambers and discussed the case with them before decision thereon.

Twelfth—That Specification 12, as follows: "That said Lucas Flattery Smith has been guilty of conduct unbecoming an upright and impartial judge. Under this specification are included all charges in the specifications herein numbered, from one to eleven, inclusive, and also the following: 1. Denying motion of Louis Buelna for continuance when his counsel failed to appear, and Charles C. Houck and Duncan McPherson, Esqs., were appointed by said Smith to defend said Buelna, not giving the newly-appointed counsel, who were both young lawyers, any time to prepare the defense. Buelna was sentenced for ninety years. 2. Denying the motion of Louis Buelna to have the public excluded from the trial. It was shown that public sentiment was greatly aroused over the case. 3. Denying motion of M. T. Langley, in case of Bloom vs. Langley, for a new trial where the statement on motion for a new trial, signed and certified to be correct by said Smith, shows on its face that the verdict of the jury was contrary to the evidence and in direct violation of the instructions of the court. In this case, which was won by Mr. Langley in the justice's court and appealed to the superior court, Mr. Cassin was employed as of counsel for Mr. Bloom when the case was tried in said superior court. 4. In giving, on all manner of occasions, both in court and out, expressions, gestures, smiles of recognition, deferential acquiescence, encouragement by look, word, and deed, signs of extreme friendliness, to and toward the warm personal friends of said Smith. 5. Making it known by look, act, word, and deed, both in court and out, on all possible occasions, that a person who opposed the warm personal friends of said Smith is persona non grata with the said superior court and the said Judge Smith"—is not fully sustained by the evidence. The evidence introduced under this specification shows that either some of the lawyers and litigants in Santa Cruz County are unruly and disrespectful to the Court, or that Judge Smith by his conduct as a judge has in part failed to command the respect due to the Court and to uphold the dignity of the position he occupies; and the evidence further shows that he has in an unusual manner for a judge favored some attorneys to the disparagement of others, and the preponderance of the evidence in this respect is on the side of the lawyers and litigants who claim that the Judge has in some instances shown unwarranted partiality.

That the communication of Judge Smith addressed to this Assembly under date of February 2, 1905, was entirely uncalled for, and has a tendency to impair his usefulness as a judge, as it will plainly appear from his petition. His evidence before the committee was of like character in some respects, which evidence has given us much information of his conduct as a jurist, and more than the evidence of any other witness justifies some criticism of his conduct.

Finally—While it is not necessary that the crime in office of which a judge may be impeached must be an indictable offense, your committee feels that it must be governed in this case in its report by the uniform rule that a judge could be impeached for any misbehavior in office which shows such turpitude, or such a condition of mind or body as rendered him unfit to perform the duties of his office, or for any misbehavior in office that would destroy the confidence, respect and dignity of the court. That should the Assembly prefer articles of impeachment against Judge Smith at the bar of the Senate, it will devolve upon it to establish the truth of these specifications, or some of them, beyond a reasonable doubt. While the evidence shows that Judge Smith is lacking in many judicial traits, and has upon several occasions seemingly disregarded the dignity and respect due to the position which he occupies, his character as a private citizen is unchallenged.

Wherefore, your committee, after due consideration of all the evidence adduced at the hearing, find therefrom and therefore recommend to the Assembly that the Honorable Lucas Flattery Smith, Judge of the Superior Court of Santa Cruz County, State of California, be not impeached upon any of the charges preferred by the memorialists for want of sufficient evidence to sustain the same.

Very respectfully submitted.

To the Assembly of the State of California:

I have the honor respectfully to return herewith to your honorable body Assembly Bill No. 58—"An Act to amend section six hundred and eleven of the Civil Code, relating to the issuance of bonds by cemetery corporations"—without my approval, for the reason that in line thirteen (13) thereof there appears what is evidently a clerical or typographical error, viz., the insertion of the word "of" instead of the word "or," which makes the phrase read "any specified share of portion," instead of "any specified share or portion," thus rendering that portion of the bill, in my judgment, unintelligible, or, perhaps, giving it a meaning entirely at variance with that of other parts of the bill.

Very respectfully,

GEO. C. PARDEE, Governor.

STATEMENT BY SPECIAL SENATE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE.

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly of the State of California:

GENTLEMEN: Knowledge has come to us of certain statements alleged to have been made upon the floor of the Assembly last evening, during the consideration of the Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 723, which statements are alleged to have been made in substance as follows:

1. That William Corbin, secretary of the Continental Building and Loan Association, dictated in whole or in part the provisions of said bill.

2. That the members of the special Senate investigating committee who submitted said substitute, were interested financially in the passage of said bill.

3. That said bill was drafted by said committee in the interests of that class of building and loan associations commonly known as "National," and to the detriment of that class of building and loan associations called "Local."

We, the undersigned, being members of the special investigating committee of the Senate, who proposed said bill, do most emphatically deny:

First—That William Corbin communicated directly or indirectly with said committee; that he had anything whatever to do with the drafting of said bill; that he could have had any possible knowledge of the contents of said bill before the same was introduced, and assert that many of the provisions of said bill were incorporated therein for the purpose of preventing a repetition of business methods alleged to have been pursued by said Corbin.

Second—Deny that said committee or any member thereof is financially interested in any way, shape, or manner in the passage or defeat of said bill.

Third—Deny that said bill was drafted in the interest of any class of building and loan association, but on the contrary, allege that said bill is equally applicable to all classes of associations, and that we listened to the testimony of different persons interested in all classes of associations before drafting said bill, and accepted and incorporated suggestions made by persons interested in all classes of associations, and that said bill, as finally amended in the Senate, was considered by us a satisfactory bill in its entirety to all persons affected by it.

The Legislature of the State of California, at its thirty-sixth session, commencing January second, nineteen hundred and five, two thirds of all the members elected to each of the two houses of said Legislature voting in favor thereof, hereby propose that Sections fifteen (15) and nineteen (19), Article five (5), of the Constitution of the State of California, be amended so as to read as follows:

Section 15. A Lieutenant-Governor shall be elected at the same time and places, and in the same manner, as the Governor, and his term of office and his qualifications of eligibility shall also be the same. In case of the death or disqualification of the Governor for any reason, he shall become Governor of the State. He shall be President of the Senate, but shall have only a casting vote therein. He shall also, when the Senate is not in session, visit the State institutions and asylums, and other institutions receiving State aid from the State, and make careful examinations of the manner in which the appropriations for the support of such institutions, and for permanent improvements, have been expended, and report the result of his examinations to the Governor, to the Legislature, and to any other officer, or board of officers, that the Legislature may direct.

The Legislature may by law prescribe the time and manner that such examinations shall be made. If, during a vacancy in the office of Governor, the Lieutenant-Governor shall be impeached, displaced, resign, die, or become incapable of performing the duties of his office, or be absent from the State, the President pro tempore of the Senate shall act as Governor until the vacancy be filled, or the disability shall cease. Section 19. The Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of State, Controller, Treasurer, Attorney-General, and Surveyor-General, shall, at stated times during their continuance in office, receive for their services a compensation which shall not be increased or diminished during the term for which they shall have been elected, which compensation is hereby fixed for the following offices for the two terms next ensuing the adoption of this Constitution, as follows: Governor, six thousand dollars per annum; Lieutenant-Governor, four thousand dollars per annum, and traveling expenses, when he may be employed in visiting and examining State institutions and asylums, and other institutions receiving State aid; the Secretary of State, Controller, Treasurer, Attorney-General and Surveyor-General, three thousand dollars each per annum, such compensation to be in full for all services by them, respectively, rendered in any official capacity or employment whatsoever during their respective terms of office; provided, however, that the Legislature, after the expiration of the terms hereinbefore mentioned, may by law diminish the compensation of any or all such officers, but in no case shall have the power to increase the same above the sums hereby fixed by this Constitution. No salary shall be authorized by law for clerical services, in any office provided for in this article, exceeding sixteen hundred dollars per annum for each clerk employed. The Legislature may, in its discretion, abolish the office of Surveyor-General; and none of the officers hereinbefore named shall receive for their own use any fees or perquisites for the performance of any official duty.

HON. W. H. WASTE CALLED TO THE CHAIR.

PRESENTATION TO THE SPEAKER.

Hon. P. A. Stanton of Los Angeles County, chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means, on behalf of the members of the Assembly, presented the Speaker, Hon. Frank C. Prescott, of San Bernardino County, with a most beautiful chest of silverware as an expression of their esteem and regard, and for the fair and faithful manner in which he had discharged the onerous and trying duties of his office.

Hearty cheers greeted the Speaker as he was presented to the Assembly.

The Speaker, in feeling terms, returned his thanks for the testimonial and for the courteous treatment that had been accorded to him personally and in the discharge of his duties.

In the course of his remarks he alluded to the work of the session, as follows:

The sixty-eight days of the thirty-sixth session of the Assembly of the State of California have been full of prompt and energetic work. Aside from the great volume of laws that have been enacted, growing out of 1,176 bills introduced, 29 constitutional amendments, 11 joint resolutions, and 25 concurrent resolutions, many elaborate and important reforms have been effected or inaugurated.

The faulty system of revenue and taxation heretofore in operation has received careful consideration. Many important improvements have been made, and a plan provided whereby the next session of the Legislature may act yet more definitely.

The long-delayed and elaborate reforms under the head of code revision have finally become laws, and the Civil and Penal Codes been perfected.

The Assembly may justly congratulate itself upon the intelligent work done upon the prison laws of the State, both in the matter of improving the prisons themselves, and also in the improvement of their management. Quietly and without ostentation, improvements have been effected in the lunacy laws, and that sad department of public duty made more efficacious.

The session has signalized its public spirit by the inauguration of laws which will result in the reclamation of thousands of acres of land in the very heart of the State.

A disinterested and patriotic public spirit has permitted us to put the Yosemite Valley under the fostering care of the General Government, forever to remain a token of California's faith and judgment to the great commonwealth.

Wise and patriotic measures have been passed by the Assembly looking to the relief of our public schools, in the matter of school books, and some other session may possibly succeed in making laws those measures which the Assembly at this session has passed as bills.

The public health of the State has been carefully considered in the enactment of a series of beneficial rules for the assistance of the State Board of Health, and hereafter the great public duty of guarding the people from plague and pestilence may be performed with the assistance of strong and effective laws.

Finally, at this session the militia of California has been brought within the legal requirements of the Federal statute known as the Dick Bill, and from now on the National Guard of California will be instructed under all the advantages of close connection with the Regular Army and close imitation of its methods.

One very wise law which has been enacted this session is that providing for the loaning of the State's money, which will keep money in circulation, and provide a revenue which will decrease taxation.

The law providing for more equal school apportionment is a measure which will result in a beneficial effect, also, upon the schools and upon the school funds.

It should not be forgotten, also, that the hold-over committee on prison reforms has furnished a precedent which will result in much assistance to succeeding Legislatures. A coterie of gentlemen studying a given subject for two years are able to put upon the files perfected bills which do not require radical amendment, which do not excite suspicion and hostility, and which result in prompt and efficacious legislation.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE TO WAIT UPON THE GOVERNOR.

Cromwell, Duryea, and Olmsted, the committee appointed to wait upon the Governor to inform His Excellency that the Assembly is ready to adjourn, appeared at the bar of the House and reported that they had performed their duty, and that His Excellency would communicate in writing to the Assembly.

Mr. Pryor addressed the Assembly, and on behalf of the minority returned thanks for the marked courtesies that had been accorded during the session by the representatives of the majority party of the House to the minority party.

RECOGNITION OF THE SERVICES RENDERED BY THE CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE ON WAYS AND MEANS.

Mr. Devlin, of Solano County, in appropriate and eloquent terms dwelt upon the difficult and laborious duties of the Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means, and the very conscientious, faithful, and earnest efforts and devotion to duty of the Hon. P. A. Stanton, of Los Angeles County, Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means, and on behalf of the members of the committee presented Mr. Stanton with an elegant cut-glass set.

Mr. Stanton, in returning his thanks for the gift, spoke of the faithfulness and devotion to duty, during the session, by the members of the committee, and the careful examination and investigation given to all matters referred to that committee.

COMPLIMENT TO CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY.

Hon. George A. McGowan, of San Francisco, in eloquent terms, spoke of the labors of the Committee on Judiciary, to whom one third of the bills introduced had been referred, and the responsible and hard work resting upon the Chairman of the Committee on Judiciary, and on behalf of the committee presented Hon. F. A. Duryea, of Placer County, its chairman, with a silver decanter and goblets, in recognition of the services rendered by him as chairman of the committee.

Mr. Duryea acknowledged his appreciation of the gift with sincere words of thanks, and spoke of the strong friendships that had been formed during the session, and especially among the members of the Committee on Judiciary.

SPEAKER RESUMES THE CHAIR.

Messrs. Treadwell, Drew, and Walsh, the committee appointed to wait upon the Senate, appeared at the bar of the Assembly and announced that the Senate had no further communication to make to the Assembly.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The following message from His Excellency the Governor, George C. Pardee, was read:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, }
SACRAMENTO, March 10, 1905. }

To the Assembly of the State of California:

GENTLEMEN: The end of the thirty-sixth session of the California Legislature is at hand, and I gladly take advantage of the opportunity to congratulate you upon the completion of your labors, and upon the solid and valuable results attained. In the sixty-eight days which the session has occupied you have dealt with a vast number of legislative matters, many of them of immense importance to the people, and it is my belief that no other Legislature has manifested greater industry or a more sincere desire to serve the State.

More than two thousand bills have been introduced in the two houses, besides a large number of resolutions and constitutional amendments, and, necessarily, time has been lacking to give many of these the mature consideration which they deserved; but the amount of business transacted is highly creditable, and I believe that very much of the legislation accomplished will be beneficial to the State.

In a number of instances policies have been initiated which are distinctly new departures and which, I am sure, will constitute a marked advance in the right direction.

Not least important among the measures of the session has been the legislation for the organization of a great drainage district in the Sacramento Valley, which is expected to lead to the control of the winter floods and the reclamation of over a million acres of fertile land. Other measures also tending toward industrial development on a large scale are but little less important, such as the arrangement to continue irrigation and other investigations through coöperative efforts by the State and Federal governments, the creation of a board of forestry, the cession of the Klamath Lake lands preparatory to the development of a large irrigation system in the northern part of the State, the making of appropriations to carry on horticultural, viticultural, and agricultural experiments and researches, and the purchase of a farm for the College of Agriculture. The part which the latter will play in the application of science to our leading industry and the solution of difficult problems of practical farming and animal husbandry is destined to be a great one.

A beginning has been made in the reformation of our revenue laws by the creation of a tax commission and the passage of the direct inheritance tax and life insurance tax and corporation license tax laws. These will raise a considerable amount of additional revenue during the next two years, and it is to be hoped that at its next session the Legislature will be prepared to take a longer step in the direction of an entire separation of State and local revenues.

You have taken another new departure in State finance by submitting to the people a constitutional amendment to authorize the deposit in banks, under careful safeguards, of State, county, and municipal funds, and also the enactment of a statute which may become operative as to deposit of State moneys even without the adoption of the amendment referred to. I believe it is sound public policy to get away from the old plan of locking up large amounts of the circulating medium during the first months following the collection of taxes, and also to secure to the State and counties a revenue from their unused funds. Again, this Legislature has passed Acts amending the banking, insurance, and building and loan laws in a manner to put these branches of business on an improved basis.

For the first time a Legislature has fairly grappled with the problem of prison reform. Many Acts have been passed which are intended to improve the condition of our penal institutions, and appropriations amounting to more than half a million dollars have been made for construction purposes at San Quentin and Folsom. When the moneys so generously provided have been expended, California should have two modern-style prisons lacking nothing in equipment to put them on a plane with the best penitentiaries in the country.

Another direction in which the Legislature has been justifiably liberal is in the appropriation of money to modernize our beautiful State Capitol building, which, nearly fifty years after its erection, still stands a credit to its builders, but which is much in need of interior renovation.

Of the many laws you have passed in the interest of public education, two of the most noteworthy are the statute providing for a more just method of distribution among the counties of the moneys raised by taxation for the support of the public schools, and the appropriation of $150,000 for the erection of a building for the San Francisco Normal School.

Another example of good legislation to advance the welfare of the rising generation is the child labor bill, which is directed to the prevention of some of the worst of the social evils of our age.

The State health laws have been revised and provision made for more careful and accurate work in collecting and compiling vital statistics.

Finally, I may mention as one of the greatest achievements of the session the passage of some two hundred code revision bills. The Civil and Penal Codes have thereby been revised and brought up to date, which is in itself a very desirable thing, but which becomes more remarkable when contrasted with the failure of previous attempts to enact this form of legislation.

In conclusion, I again congratulate the members of the Legislature upon the fruition of their labors and wish them pleasant journeys to their several homes.

Respectfully,

GEO. C. PARDEE, Governor.

RESOLUTION.

By Mr. Burke:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Assembly are hereby voted to Wm. C. Guirey, File Clerk, for his faithful performance of duties as such Clerk.

Resolution adopted.

RECESS.

At eleven o'clock and fifteen minutes A. M., on motion of Mr. Treadwell, a recess was declared until eleven o'clock and forty-five minutes A. M.

RECONVENED.

The Assembly reconvened at eleven o'clock and forty-five minutes A. M. Speaker Hon. Frank C. Prescott in the chair.
